

Course Outcome

BA Sociology

Semester	Course code	Course title	Course outcomes
I (core)	SG 1144	Introduction to Social Sciences	CO 1. Learners will be enabled to comprehend and evaluate the conceptual framework of Indian social system. CO 2. Learners will gain understanding of the dynamics of social institutions and applications of different theoretical as well as methodological perspectives of studying Indian Society. CO 3. Learners will be acquainted with contemporary Indian society in terms of caste, class and religion. CO 4. Learners will be able to evaluate social, economic and cultural features of minorities and other weaker section in India as well as the Constitutional provision for the protection of minorities and other weaker section in India
I (compl)	SG 1135	Introduction to Sociology	CO 1. Learners from disciplines other than Sociology understand the origin and development of Sociology as well as the scope of the discipline CO 2. Learners get an introduction to the key concepts of Sociology CO 3. Learners will be able to comprehend the significance of social processes and social change
II (core)	SG 1244	Understanding Indian Society	CO 1. Gets comprehensive, integrated and empirically-based profile of Indian Society is understood by the students. CO 2. get an idea about the present and the past structural make of Indian society. CO 3. Understands Different theoretical perspective on Indian society is familiarized by the students CO 4. analyze different social institutions in contemporary Indian society
II (compl)	SG 1235	Individual and Social Behaviour	CO 1. Gain an understanding of the basics in Social Psychology Familiarize with the relation between individual and society CO 2. Learners will be able to recognize social behavior and its dynamics CO 3. Analyze the role of personality in social system
III (core)	SG 1323	Social Informatics	CO 1. Familiarizes with the basic concepts and acquire a functional knowledge in the field of informatics CO 2. Learners will be equipped with the knowledge necessary to identify, analyze, and report various ICT-related issues faced by society, governments, and organizations CO 3. Provides awareness on the social issues and concerns in the use of digital technology CO 4. To develop skills in the use of digital knowledge resources in learning
III (core)	SG 1344	Sociological Theories	CO 1. Acquaints with the philosophical roots of sociological theory CO 2. Familiarizes with the various contexts that led to the emergence of sociology as a distinctive discipline CO 3. Learners acquire a preliminary understanding of the classical contributions in sociological theories
III (compl)	SG 1335	Sociology and ageing	CO 1. To understand the development of Social Gerontology CO 2. Learners become aware of the theoretical perspectives on ageing CO 3. To become familiar with the demographic profile of elderly and to analyze the major problems faced by the elderly CO 4. To gain an understanding about various measures and policies of elderly

IV (core)	SG 1443	Research Methodology	CO 1.To understand the fundamentals of social research and its applications CO 2. To comprehend the scientific nature of research and various steps involved in it CO 3. Learners will acquire various tools, techniques and methods of data collection CO 4. To gain basic knowledge on the role of statistics in social research
IV (core)	SG 1444	Social Psychology	CO 1.To understand the basic concepts in Social Psychology CO 2. Learners will be able to analyze social behavior and its characteristics CO 3. Comprehends the nature and factors affecting personality and its relation with social system
IV (compl)	SG 1435.1	Women Studies	CO 1.Provides basic concepts related with Women studies, to trace the history of women's movements and the historical roots of feminism CO 2. Learners acquire the skills to problematize the taken for granted gender bias and prejudices CO 4. To learn to evaluate and deconstruct the existing gendered social system
V (core)	SG 1541	Gender and Society	CO 1. To become familiar with the key concepts in gender CO 2. To understand the spheres of gender in everyday life CO 3. To develop skills in analyzing gender attributes CO 4. To be able to problematize the taken for granted gender bias and prejudices
V (core)	SG 1452	Structure and Transformation of Kerala Society	CO 1. To gain knowledge about the social and cultural history of Kerala society CO 2. Familiarizes with the trajectory of social transformation in Kerala and its implications to the present day society CO 3. Acquires skills in understanding and analyzing the various problems of contemporary Kerala society
V (core)	SG 1543	Urban Planning and Development	CO 1.Learners become familiarized with the key concepts in Urban Sociology and the sociological perspectives on urban social life CO 2. To develop analytical capacity among students about urbanization, urban communities, and urban problems CO 3. To understand the relevance of urban planning and development
V (core)	SG 1544.1	Rural Development	CO 1. To understand and assess the conceptual meaning of rural development. CO 2. To identify the characteristics of rural and urban aspects in social life. CO 3. To acquire the ability to critically evaluate the policies, programmes and strategies for uplifting the rural life comprehensively
V (core)	SG 1545.1	Sociology of Development	CO 1. To obtain conceptual understanding of social development CO 2. To get familiarized with some of the theories of development CO 3. To become aware of the global scenario of development
V (open course)	SG 1551.1	Life Skill Education	CO 1. Basic understanding is gained by students on life skill education CO 2. Different elements of soft skills are identified by the students and they learn how to enhance capabilities CO 3. Enables to analyze the relationship between self and society

VI (core)	SG 1641	Environmental Sociology	CO 1.To provide awareness on the various environmental issues CO 2. Learners gain knowledge about certain theoretical foundations in environmental studies CO 3. To develop an understanding about how developmental programmes may affect the existence of human life CO 4. Familiarizes with environmental movements and efforts at environmental conservation
VI (core)	SG 1642	Sociology of Health	CO 1.Learners will gain a basic understanding on the social background of health and diseases CO 2. Provides awareness on the importance of social and medical interventions for the prevention and control of diseases CO 3. To acquire skills in recognizing the need for effective health policies and programmes for the promotion and protection of health
VI (core)	SG 1643	Social Stratification	CO 1. Acquires a basic understanding on the various dimensions of inequality in the society CO 2. Understands and get familiarized with the major approaches of stratifications studies CO 3. Gains knowledge regarding social stratification in India
VI (core)	SG 1644.2	Social Anthropology	CO 1. Comprehends the basics of social anthropology as a discipline and enables learners to understand the different methods adopted in social anthropology CO 1. Familiarizes with the social and cultural life of the tribal society of India in general and Kerala in particular CO 1. Provides a preliminary understanding of the transformations in tribal societies in India and Kerala
VI (core)	SG 1661.2	Crimes and Society	CO 1.To acquire knowledge regarding crime, its changing profile and various theoretical perspectives on crime CO 2. To develop a sociological understanding towards crime and criminal justice in our society CO 3. To become sensitized to the causes, social dimensions, consequences and measures to control various forms of crime
VI (core)	EC 1645	Project work	CO 1 – Equips students to identify an issue or topic of their interest within the subject, conducting a study in a systematic and scientific way, and to prepare and present the report in a structured manner